

LEADERSHIP IN TRANSITION

Smooth Transitions for Club Officers

The leadership experience involves a smooth transition to new teams, new horizons, and perhaps new directions. This is as important as the journey you just took. Exactly what needs to be done to transition into the new leadership role?

➤ Support the Team

Work with the team and for the team through June 30

Roll up your sleeves! Work as hard as you expect others to work

➤ Focus on the Distinguished Club Program and Club Success Plan

CCs, ACs, and Membership - assess and evaluate each of these critical factors for your Club's success and develop a plan of action to accomplish goals in each area from this point forward. Change course if needed!

Engage and motivate your members on what needs to be done for your Club to become Distinguished by June 30

Delegate and follow-up on all matters of importance - continually

➤ Remain Enthusiastic and Positive About Your Goals

Never give up on goals yet to be achieved - it's not over yet!

Do you need help? ASK for advice! Past club leaders are an excellent resource on 'beating the clock' and will gladly assist

➤ Prepare to Pass the Torch of Leadership

Support the officers who are stepping up to the leadership role

Put together a list of goals that will cross leadership lines when transition takes place so that new officers have the right start

Step across the finish line with your head held high - be proud of your accomplishments!

Be there for your successors - support and motivate them to achieve
